Policy Statement on the Recruitment of Ex-offenders

In accordance with the Disclosure and Barring Service Code of Practice, this policy is made available to all job applicants at the outset of the recruitment process. The DBS Code of Practice is available at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-code-of-practice>.

As an organisation that uses the Disclosure and Barring Service, the Trust complies fully with the DBS Code of Practice and undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a Disclosure based on conviction or other information revealed.

We meet the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020), which requires you to disclose convictions and cautions except those which are 'protected' under Police Act 1997 – Part V and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 and 2020). Guidance on the filtering of 'protected' cautions and convictions which do not need to be disclosed by a job applicant can be found at the Ministry of Justice. A DBS check will therefore be carried out before the appointment to any job at the School is confirmed. This will include details of convictions and cautions (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings) that are not 'protected' as defined by the Ministry of Justice. A criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position.

We are committed to the fair treatment of applicants on all protected grounds and in relation to all history of offending.

We promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates and protected characteristics, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their competencies, qualifications and knowledge.

We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience

Application forms and recruitment information will contain a statement that job applicants will be required to disclose their criminal record if they are invited to interview, and a DBS check will be carried out if they are offered the job. The information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.

At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the job sought could lead to the withdrawal of an offer of employment.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the job before making a decision on whether to withdraw a conditional offer of employment.

We ensure that those who are involved in the recruitment process have access to advice to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure they receive appropriate guidance in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working for the Trust. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offences.
